

Please, please, please do not allow cell phone usage while a plane is in the air. As an every week air traveler I just do not see the need for it. The additional noise and overly loud talking would just be too much to take.